

Massillon Independent.

VOL VIII--NO 51

MASSILLON, OHIO. JUNE 14, 1871.

WHOLE NUMBER. 415.

INDEPENDENT.

Reported for the Independent.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Wednesday Ev'g, May 31, 1871.

Regular Session—G. L. Russell presiding.

Roll Call—Members present, Messrs. Russell,

Mong, Ketch, Kirkland, Bollinger, Crook,

and Oberlin.

Minutes read and approved.

Mr. Sailer presented a bill for sundry work done for the city to the amount of $267.24. Mr. Willenborg moved that the matter be referred to the street and alley committee. Motion prevailed.

The street committee submitted his regular report for work done on streets and alleys for the week ending May 27, to be $70.75.

Mr. Ruchti of the committee to whom was referred the claims of Wm. Rogers against the city of Massillon reported, recommending the payment of said claims with the exception of the amount claimed as interest. On motion of Mr. Willenborg the report was laid on the table for one week.

An order was presented from Mr. Hewes for the payment of $20 to Ed Butler, which was on motion of Mr. Crook accepted and an order authorized to be drawn for the amount.

A bill of Louis Zellers for $5.30 for repairing fire engine was presented, and referred to the committee on the department.

Orders were drawn on the treasury as follows: Yeas, Messrs. Russell, Mong, Ruchti, Kirkland, Oberlin, Crook, Bollinger and Willenborg—8; nays, none.

Ed. Butler on John Hewes order...$20.00

T. H. Seaman to apply on salary...50.00

John Sailer to apply on North and Center streets...300.00

John Higginbotham, balance due on prison contract...412.27

John Hewes, services as street commissioner...100.00

A petition from E. Chidester and others was presented, asking for the necessary fire plugs to be placed on Prospect street for the better protection from fire of property on said street. On motion of Mr. Mong the petition was received, and the matter referred to the committee on water works.

The special committee to whom was referred the matter of the probable cost and best location in the second ward for a hose house, and a room in which to hold elections in said ward, reported, recommending that whenever the city council demand it necessary to erect a building for such purpose, to purchase the south-west corner of Tremont and Canal streets, owned by W. Mater, and held at $500 or $725.

On motion of Mr. Willenborg, the report was accepted and the committee discharged.

There being no further business the council adjourned.

The following communication, although not written for this paper, prepared by a colored man, evinces a spirit of candor and intelligence which all might envy, but which compares favorably to the best of the white race. Mr. P. the writer passed through the fiery ordeal of the war, and was proved a gallant and brave soldier, and will bear the marks of his wounds he received, to the grave of his merits as a soldier he was awarded two medals one of which is in a north very few receive, and perhaps no other soldier in this part of Ohio's glory as our boys here themselves, but he is a military leader with such a high reputation of esteem from one of the greatest officers in the service.

Mr. Editor—I notice that considerable controversy has been created by the conduct shown toward the colored soldiers on Decoration day, in removing them from the position to which they were properly assigned, without any apparent reason than to gratify the malevolent prejudices of others. A brief statement will place the matter fairly before your readers.

At the preliminary meeting, aside from the general invitation to all of our citizens to participate in the exercises, a special invitation was extended to the colored soldiers, lest, as a speaker remarked, disaffection on the part of our colored soldiers should prevent their attendance. An invitation so cordially given was accepted in the same spirit. On Tuesday morning our men, twelve in number, were at hand awaiting assignment.

participate as an organization, and left the columns before reaching the cemetery.

Now, Mr. Editor, we feel justified in our action, necessitated by self-respect. I will recapitulate. Without solicitation we were invited to participate by a special resolution at the citizens' meeting. Accepting, and placed in position we were compelled to leave the column, simply and solely on account of color.

We enter our protest against such action. As invited guests we expected courteous treatment—nothing more nor nothing less. And then another fact, seemingly overlooked by gentlemen. The 30th of May is an established holiday. The memorial services are national offerings, the peoples' consecrations, and no class of citizens in the American republic have greater claims to the nation's immunities than our colored citizen soldiers. Without restriction all classes are at liberty to participate in this common feeling, with an especial interest in our soldiers dead. They died for a twofold purpose, the perpetuation of the common union, and for personal liberty. One of our comrades lies sleeping in the Massillon cemetery, after devoted service to his country. We have the same tenderness for our dead braves that others feel for their dead. Floral tributes are as worthily bestowed upon this one's grave as elsewhere. And yet there seems to be no relaxation of the American spirit of ostracism. Prejudice and caste struggle for existence over the graves of our national defenders.

I think it high time that we had laid aside forever every vestige of the entailed curse, and become republicans in practice as well as in theory. We decried the action of the south, and invoke congressional aid in well defined statutory laws to suppress ku kluxism, yet in the north we are notoriously guilty of grosser outrages, which only require a change of location in order to assume the form of personal violence.

I hope that our bitter experience during the late fratricidal war will yet imbue a spirit of Christian manhood, and supplant the present age of caste, and place us upon a basis of fair dealing with each other.

"With malice toward none and charity for all," I am truly yours,

ROBERT A. FINN.

SUPREME JUDGE

We are told that Judge Scott does not desire a re-nomination. We have seen but one name mentioned for Supreme Judge on the republican ticket—William H. West, of Logan. Probably no better choice could be made from a hundred candidates. Mr. West is a thorough student, a hard worker, an exceedingly able man of sound principles and strong convictions, and would bring to the bench rich experience, superior to that of any other candidate. Mr. West has had large legislative experience, and has also had much legal experience as a lawyer in large practice, and as Attorney General for the State.—O. S. Journal.

THE HEAD FOR THE HAT.

If any one has the least doubt that the head was made for the hat, he has only to notice the action of self-styled orthodoxy in this, and every other community, to have his doubts resolved at once and forever. For with wonderful unanimity its adherents and professors declare by their deeds that men are made for institutions; the church is of more account than civilization, morality, or mankind; theology is a fixed fact to which human reason and conscience must bend, and the Sabbath is an iron mould into which souls are poured once a week, and to which they must adjust themselves as best they can. Individual culture and welfare, and all the precious interests of society and mankind, are of no account whatever, except they are related to and in conformity with these divine established facts, for whose benefit they exist and must be sacrificed if need be. In other words, heads were made for hats; and if the head happens to be too large for the hat, shave it down to a proper and becoming smallness, or cut it off altogether. For the hat is the crown of manhood, the glory of the world; and it were better for a man to

THE SIGNS OF THE HANDS.

A little work on Modern Palmistry brings together a large amount of amusing gossip, though we cannot say how much of it you may believe. The person who will carefully study the wrinkles, furrows, lines, and hollows of the hands will be able to tell fortunes as well as any modern Gypsy.

If the palm of the hand be long, and the fingers well proportioned, etc., not soft, but rather hard, it denotes the person to be ingenious, changeable and given to theft and vice.

If the hands be hollow, solid and well knit in the joints, it predicts long life; if over thwarted, then it denotes short life.

Observe the fingers of Mercury—that is, the middle finger; if the end of it exceeds the joint of the ring finger, such a man will rule in his own house; and his wife will be pleasing and obedient to him, but if it is short and does not reach the joint, he will have a shrew, and she will be boss.

Broad nails show the person to be bashful but of a gentle nature.

Narrow nails denote the person to be inclined to mischief and to do injury to his neighbors.

Long nails show the person to be good natured, but distrustful, and loving reconciliation rather than differences.

Oblique nails denote obstinacy, anger and hatred.

If they are crooked at the extremity they show pride and fierceness.

Round nails show a choleric person yet soon reconciled, honesty, a lover of secret schemes.

Fleshy nails denote a person to be mild in temper, idle and lazy.

Pale and black nails denote a person to be very deceitful to his neighbors, and subject to many diseases.

Red and marked nails signify a choleric and material nature, given to cruelty; and as many little marks as there are specks so many evil desires.

GIRLS, DON'T TALK SLANG.

Girls, don't talk slang. If it is necessary that any should do that, let it be your big brother, though I would advise him not to adopt pigeon English when there is an elegant systematized language that he can just as well use. But don't you do it. You can have no idea how it sounds to ears unused or averse to it, to hear a young lady when asked to attend a place of amusement, answer, Not much; or if requested to do something she does not wish to, Can't see it! Not long ago I heard a young miss, who is educated and accomplished, say, in speaking of a young man, that she intended to go for him! and when her sister asked her assistance at some work, she answered—Not for Joe!

Now, young ladies of unexceptional character and really good education, fall into this habit, thinking it shows smartness to answer back in slang phrases, and they soon slip daintily from their tongues with a saucy pertinence that is not lady like or becoming. Young men who talk in that way, do not care to hear it from the lips they love or admire. It sounds much coarser than I bet, or You bet, is well enough between men who trade horses or land; but the contrast is startling and positively shocking when a young man is holding the hand of his lady love to hear these words issue from her lips. They seem at once to surround her with the laughter as associations of his daily life, and bring her down from the pedestal of purity, whereto he had placed her, to his own coarse level.

And really slang does not save time in the use of language, as abridgement. No! is shorter and more decisive than Not much! and I know I'm sure is quite as easy as I'll bet. More than one professed wading has been indefinitely postponed by such means; for however remiss young men may be themselves, they look for better things in the girls of their choice; and it does not help them mend a bad habit to adopt it too. Besides two wrongs never make a right. I know the bright eyed girl who reads this will think the matter over and say I am right.

Despite the opposition of church and other prejudices, the woman's suffrage movement is rapidly unfolding strength. England is in advance of us in this movement. Is it possible that a country under the sway of a crown shall be first to deal justly with women?

Should the time ever come in the U. S. when giving the franchise to women can be made a political interest to the governmental whe-pullers in power then there will be a flaunting of sentiment upon the Divine justice of equal rights to all, expressive of most disinterested desire to move along the wheels of right and progression, while if anything can be done, bribing and buying votes will be going on behind the curtains. If the common objections to women voting be true in our respects, namely, that she will grow coarse and less lovable, let it be earnestly hoped in this case she will not become masculine and sell her vote.

Perhaps one reason so many long headed thinkers are against female suffrage is because they fear to allow an element in the political arena, which they may not be able to manage in all sorts of rascally games, and schemes for money making out of the government, and election of tools to office.—Elin Orion.

Refresh that part of thyself which is most wearied.—If thy life be sedentary, exercise thy body; if stirring and active, recreate thy mind! But take heed of cozening thy mind, in setting it to do a double task, under pretence of giving it a play-day, as in the laboratory of chess, and other tedious and studious games.—Thomas Paine.
